TEN CENTS A WEEK.

A CRISIS

COMING IN THE GREAT STEEL STRIKE.

THINGS AT SUCH A TENSION

That Something Must Break or Give Way Soon—Steel Trust May Try Non-Union Labor Next Week—Financial Circles Believe Strike Far From Settlement.

Pittsburg, July 20.—It is generally believed here that the great steel strike is rapidly nearing a crisis.

Things are at such a tension that something must break or give. The steel trust will begin attempts at resumption with non-union labor next week, working every possible legal means of protection for the new men and the plants.

If the fight is once begun on those lines, concessions heretofore offered will be revoked.

New York financial circles believe the strike is far from settlement.

Cleveland Hoop Mill.

Cleveland, O., July 20.—The hoop mill which has been abandoned for some time and which was to have been started up by the American Steel and Wire Company will probably not begin operations on Monday as was expected.

Situation at Wellsville.

Wellsville, O., July 20.—The strike situation at the mill of the American Sheet Steel Company here is unchanged this morning. Since three o'clock Friday afternoon the union men have been watching all trains from Pittsburg for non-union men who were expected to come here to work in the mill. However, none came. It is expected the company will send men here on Monday from Vandergrift, Pa. The union men are still out and they are preparing for a long strike. The city is pretty well stirred up over the strike. Some of the business men started a movement to hold a meeting to take some action on the strike, but so far no public meeting has been held.

The McKeesport Mills.

Pittsburg, Pa., July 20.—A united effort will be made today to induce the men employed in the mills of the National Tube company at McKeesport, to join the ranks of the steel strikers. From reports received it appears that a majority of the men employed in the tube and rolling mills have been organized and are only awaiting the word to come out. The object of the big mass meeting in McKeesport this afternoon is to induce the workers who are not already members of the amalgamated association to join at once.

The Firemen's Strike.

Wilkes-Barre, Pa., July 20.—The whole region here waits on the results of the big meeting tomorrow at which the United Mine Workers are to define their positions regarding the strike of the firemen. Until then nothing of importance is expected. All the firemen who are now at work are expected to remain at work, the engineers who are to meet this afternoon will postpone their expected declaration of a strike and will wait until they know whether the U. M. W. will fight the strikers or assist them.

CHILD'S DEATH—Helen, the three-months-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alonso Totten of Tenth street, died this morning. The funeral will take place from Beulah church Sunday morning.

Schlatter Sentenced.

Washington, July 20.—Divine Heater Schlatter was sentenced to pay $100 and was given 10 days today for vagrancy.

Denison's New Secretary.

Rev. Bunyan Spenger, formerly of this county, now pastor of the Baptist church at Alexandria, has been elected secretary of the board of trustees of Denison University, Granville, which consists of six departments, Granville College, Shepardson College for Women, Doane Academy, Conservatory of Music, School of Art and School of Military Science. He was also elected president of the Association of Alumni of the University at the last commencement.—Zanesville Times-Recorder.

WAITER'S FINE PAID BY PUBLIC.

Darby, Conn., July 20.—Feeling against the sweeping injunction of Judge Gager in the machinist strike is running high. An outbreak would cause little surprise. The three men arrested for attempting peaceably to persuade a non-union man to refrain from working were greeted like heroes when they returned home. Thomas Davis, a waiter, was overheard to remark: "The scabs have come to town." He was arrested and was fined $50 and costs. A public subscription paid the fine.

GLENN CASE

Mystery of Ellis Glenn Has Not Been Cleared as Yet—Belief Acquittal Will Result.

Parkersburg, W. Va., July 20.—Public interest in the Glenn case has not abated.

Friday's testimony in the Ellis Glenn case pertained largely to the personal appearance of Elbert Glenn and to the scars upon his body. Nearly all the witnesses for the state have testified that Elbert Glenn had a cross-shaped scar as large as a quarter upon his head and that he had a cut in one hand, which would in all probability have left a scar. The witnesses for the defense testified that no such scar could be found upon Ellis Glenn's head and that she has no scar on her hand.

Philip White, the defense's star witness, testified that he had slept with Glenn many times, that he had a scar as of a bullet wound on one arm, and he had examined Ellis Glenn's arm and could find no such scar.

Dr. A. N. Frame testified that one of her legs was seven-eights of an inch longer than the other. That one leg had been broken and that he found no scars on her head or hand.

The state put on Dr. W. J. Davidson, who testified that scars could be removed by surgery, and the state tried to let him get a glimpse of the defendant's head to see if any scar had been removed, but was not permitted to do so. William Macon, a barber, and a witness for the defense, testified that he had often cut Elbert Glenn's hair and had once shaved him, but on cross-examination admitted that Glenn had no beard, but merely a little fuzz.

S. F. Bonham, a Huntington laundry proprietor, testified to doing up Glenn's laundry and to sleeping with him, and not finding anything to indicate that he was not a man. He admitted seeing a scar on Ellis Glenn's hand.

Half a dozen witnesses from Parkersburg and Williamsburg testified that they did not think Ellis Glenn and Elbert Glenn are the same person, most of them because they thought Elbert is taller.

Nearly all the witnesses differed in their statements as to Elbert Glenn's age when they knew him. The defense has almost completed its testimony. Probably all the evidence will be in by night.

The defense announced that they would spring a sensation on the Court in a few days, but did not state the nature of it. Many people think it will be the production of the original Bert Glenn, who it is claimed has been in the courtroom on several occasions since the trial began. It is generally conceded that Elbert will be cleared.

Will Starve.

Macon, Ga., July 20.—Minder, condemned murderer, said today he will fast 50 days, presumably to escape the gallows.

Niagara Falls, July 20.—Core Beck, with dweclares she intends swimming the whirlpool rapids next Wednesday.

She says she is the only woman who ever swam the English channel, 21 miles.

PENSIONS—Henry Wilson of Elizabethtown has been granted an original pension of $8 per month. The minor heirs of William J. Prior have been granted a pension of $16 per month.

BE WISE—Madam Mason will remain a few days longer. Consultation on business or love. 17 North First street.

CAMP BAUMGARDNER

Lieut. Smith Wins Regimental Badge as Best Marksman—Governor Expected Sunday—Dress Parade Sunday at 6.

Religious Services—News of the Encampment.

Company G of the Sixth regiment, was the "whole thing" in the regimental shoot this morning. The contest was for the individual badge for the best marksman in the regiment, which was won by Lieutenant J. W. Smith of Company G, which company also won the company team trophy.

The company is from Bloomdale, a small town of 740 inhabitants, and the boys are highly elated over their success. The five men from Co. G, who were entered for representatives on the state team "made good."

The following are the scores made this morning, the first ten highest representing the regiment in the state contest.

Co. M—J. Wilbur 117. J. Wendling 140.

Co. G—Lieut. J. W. Smith 156. W. H. R. Richards 143. W. D. Symon 150. W. Fry 152. G. H. Dicken 135.

Co. B—Lieut. Gau 134. G. R. Riblet 118.

Co. A—H. Webb 149. O. L. West 119. Lieut. Gibb 137.

Co. F—G. Lazenby 115.

This afternoon there were fifteen men shooting on the rifle range with Krag-Jorgenson rifles.

The drill in putting up shelter tents this morning was one of the most interesting maneuvers yet made. The men went out on the parade grounds and as one officer expressed it: "First you saw all men and no tents; in five minutes you saw all tents and no men, and in five minutes more, tall men and no tents."

Private Brunner of Company H, was struck in the eye by a base ball and severely injured.

Tomorrow morning a base ball game will be played between teams from Companies H and C.

The officer of the day today is Captain Yerges of Co. L, and Lieutenant Myers of Co. L is officer of the guard.

The dress parade on Sunday will be held at 6 o'clock instead of 5:30.

Successful Trip.

Lisbon, July 20.—Capt. Seward Blackburn, the American sailor who sailed from Gloucester, Mass., in a 25-foot sail boat, arrived here today. The trip occupied 33 days.

Aguinaldo, Prisoner.

Manila, July 20.—Aguinaldo has refused to write to General Malvar and advise him to surrender. Instead he sent the insurgent general a copy of the oath of allegiance but under the signature he added the word "Prisoner." Aguinaldo is constantly under surveillance. This greatly irritates him.

DASTARDLY FRAUD

Is the Hanna-Dick Scheme to Split the Democratic Party of Ohio This Year by Placing a Second Alleged Democratic Ticket on the Official Ballot—Trick to Deceive Voters.

Columbus, O., July 20.—The Hanna support the regular ticket at the polls next November.

This dastardly fraud, the like of which outside of politics would send the conspirators to the penitentiary, is a revival of Charlie Dick's parallel attempt to split the Democratic party in his first campaign as chairman of the Republican state executive committee. Indeed, Dick and Hanna now employ the same instruments they employed then, among whom the unsavory individual first deserving mention is Hugo Pryor, former Middle-of-the-Road Populist and always any old thing that promises hope of reward for himself or his confederates. Dick and Hanna, Pryor associated with one Groot, of Cleveland, a statesman of the same stripe, issues the call for the conference of "Bryan Democrats," it is he who convenes himself in solemn conclave in Cleveland and resolves in behalf of the Bryan Democracy that the party must be split in

THE DEMOCRATIC STATE COMMITTEE.

FOSBURG

TRIAL AT PITTSFIELD WILL SOON BE OVER.

BUT A FEW MORE WITNESSES

For the State "But They are Important Ones" Said State's Attorney This Morning—Defendant Does Not Seem Worried—The Case is Resting at Pittsfield Today.

Pittsfield, Mass., July 20.—John C. Crody said today that the prosecution would close Monday.

"We have but a few more witnesses," he said, "but they are important ones."

This means that a sensation will be sprung when James Fosburg, young brother of the defendant, will be called by the state.

Fosburg's fourteen year old sister, Beatrice, will also be called for the state. The girl saw her sister fall. The State claims that she told the officers she saw the defendant standing in front of her sister and that she herself was behind her. This state also claims that Robert Fosburg has said that he was behind his sister when she fell. Neither James nor Beatrice fears the ordeal.

If the state finishes Monday it is likely that the case will go to the jury Tuesday for unless something more direct than that presented so far is brought up, the defense will move for the discharge of the prisoner and will offer no testimony. All the evidence thus far introduced by the state is circumstantial. The state sought to establish that May Fosburg was shot with a revolver held not over eight inches from her breast. The state has also attempted to disprove the burglar theory. A bullet was found in the bureau in a spare room where Fosburg said the burglars escaped. By various experiments the government has been able to get evidence to the effect that the direction of the bullet was not from the window alleged but from the door. The conduct of the Fosburg family is remarkable. The family including the accused live at the Wendell, and appear regularly at the effects of the trial. Today principals and witnesses are resting and waiting for Monday when the case will be resumed.

The trio are of Alton's swell set and wealthy. They bombarded Kennedy because he printed without names an item about an Alton society man shooting at another because he found him with his wife. The judge referred to anonymous publication as "cowardly" and said the young men had great provocation.

twin for the benefit of the popular hands out a "platform" ready-made for the alleged "conference." It is he who deliberately steals Bryan's name to rack it like a tail to the Hanna kite. It is he who commits larceny of the word Democrat and has the supreme gall to invite real Democrats to join in the fraud.

This is the same Pryor to whom Dick paid $25 as part of his "expenses" in a Populist state convention, with a view to preventing the indorsement of the Democratic state ticket. It is the same Pryor who gave Chairman Dick the nickname of "Checkbook," because Dick was foolish enough to pay the money with a check out of the Republican campaign fund. Pryor was so elated at seeing so much money all at one time that he could not wait for the banks to open. He cashed the check with a friend and then Dick's conspiracy to bribe Populists against the Democratic party became a part of written history. The "friend" told of the incident and the famous check finally found its way to the Democratic campaign committee, which caused it to be photographed and re-engraved and thousands of copies distributed all over the state. It was in this manner that Dick, Pryor, Groot et al formed the partnership that is now about to be cemented in his campaign.

It is worthy of note that this adjunct of the Hanna bureau calls a "conference," not a convention of the Bryan Democrats whose honor and name it is attempting to steal. The conference will meet in this city in a single room of the Great Southern hotel, if it does not conclude to adjourn to the ice-box. The conspirators perceive the absurdity of dignifying such a gathering with the name of a convention, and when the ridiculously small attendance manifests itself—if, indeed, anybody appears at all except Pryor and Groot—they will announce that no effort was made to assemble a representative body, that meeting was merely for consultation and prayer, etc., etc., relying upon this kind of rot to deceive the Democratic voters of Ohio.

The only serious aspect of this miserable farce appears in the parts played by Hanna and Dick, backed by a Republican state administration, the national Republican fund wrung from the trusts, and the co-operation of a Republican secretary of state who is like putty in the hands of the Cleveland boss. The Dick-Pryor gang will undertake to nominate a state ticket by petition. This will be the conclusion of the "conference," after reaching which the conspirators will draw on Hanna for funds to circulate their petitions. Republicans will be expected to stultify themselves by signing, and when names are not forthcoming voluntarily it is believed that the liberal use of money will obtain a sufficient number to admit the conspirators to a place on the official ballot under the fraudulent name of "Bryan Democrats." The secretary of state may be relied upon not to be over-scrupulous. If he does not care to do so, he will be perfectly safe in failing to investigate the number of dead men among the petitioners or in otherwise determining the validity of signatures.

When the executive committee organizes it will select a chairman of the literary bureau and of the speakers' bureau. Colonel W. S. Taylor is prominently mentioned for the former. The speakers' bureau has not always received the attention it deserves. This department is more active than ever in the height of a campaign and the appointments this year will receive careful attention.

Like the Deadly Under-Current which grasps one without warning the mucous membrane which lines the entire body suddenly becomes weakened in some spot and disease is established. It may be of the lungs, the head, throat, stomach, bowels, or any other organ. Wherever it is, and whatever it seems, it all springs from the same cause—or inflammation of this delicate pink membrane.

The system is weakened in winter. The delicate lining is more susceptible to irritation or inflammation, and thus we have pneumonia, grip, colds, coughs, fevers, etc., all catarrhal conditions which may easily be checked by one catarrh cure—Pe-ru-na.

That's the only way out of it. You may dose forever—you will not be well until you try the true cure and that is Pe-ru-na. You may think your trouble is some other disease and not catarrh. Call it what you will, one thing is sure, your system is affected and must be treated, and Pe-ru-na is the only remedy which reaches the right place and does cure.

tion and the election of an executive committee to conduct the campaign. The chairman of the latter is very likely to be Hon. M. A. Daugherty of Fairfield county. Mr. Daugherty is Colonel Kilbourne's first choice for this important position, but has been averse to accepting it on personal grounds. It is believed, however, that he has yielded to the solicitations of the candidate for governor and will accept the place. His selection is agreeable to all the interests represented in the central committee and it is determined upon will be unanimous.

Dr. Gilliam, who managed the Kilbourne anti-convention campaign, declined to have his name considered for chairman of the executive committee because he favored the selection of a man with a large acquaintance over the state than he possesses.

For secretary it is probable that Judge R. M. Ditty will be chosen. Judge Ditty was Kilbourne's manager and Zanesville two years ago, and was also identified with the Colonel's campaign this year.

His wide acquaintance, political acumen and influential associations will make his selection as secretary meet the approval of the thousands of Democrats who will have business with the committee.

When the executive committee organizes it will select a chairman of the literary bureau and of the speakers' bureau. Colonel W. S. Taylor is prominently mentioned for the former. The speakers' bureau has not always received the attention it deserves. This department is more active than ever in the height of a campaign and the appointments this year will receive careful attention.

Delaware, Ohio, July 20.—The "Bryan Democracy" movement has struck this county and has met with the "frosty spit." Mr. N. D. Stayman, known as the "Gibraltar of Delaware County Democracy," today received a letter from one Samuel A. Groot of Cleveland, asking him to take hold of the movement for the Bryan Democrats in this county, inclosing a petition to which signatures were to be secured, and asking for moral and financial assistance to the organization of the "New Democracy" in this locality.

Mr. Stayman replied by return mail. His answer, short and to the point, was as follows:

"Delaware, O., July 19, 1901.

"Samuel A. Groot, Cleveland O.—

Dear Sir: I am neither a political knave nor a d—d fool. Very truly yours,

THE STEEL TRUST SUBSIDY.

The gigantic steel trust has a tariff subsidy of 40 per cent on its products. This enables it to sell American-made goods abroad cheaper than at home. The extortion is openly defended and boasted of as protection to American labor, but in reality it taxes American labor to create dividends on watered stock. The Chicago Chronicle in noting the Amalgamated strike recalls the achievements of the steel trust:

The steel combine, with a nominal capital of $1,100,000,000, was formed on the general plan of the "trusts." That plan is, in substance, to value the different plants taken in at all they are worth, issue stock to the aggregate amount, then issue as much more to be distributed as bonus among the combined concerns, and then on top of that issue, say, 20 per cent more to pay the promoters and attorneys to be held in reserve.

This looks like adding 120 per cent more or less, to the full original value of the plants and as though the combine expected to increase the profits in proportion by alleged economies and by squeezing American consumers up to the limit assigned by the Dingey tariff. It looks on the surface also like actual prosperity.

Employees, concludes the Chronicle, "when they see property marked up from $500,000,000, which was all it was worth not long ago to $1,100,000,000 easily infer that profits have increased to match and think they are entitled to a slice of all this tariff-made prosperity, which in their experience means plenty of work at low wages."

English as she is made spontaneous by variety according to country. A British naval officer under arrest for forgery explained at the desk of a magistrate: "I would not have committed the crime had I not been down to it." The American would have explained: "It was up to me to do it because I was hungry." Sang in each instance, but picturesque and intelligible. Thus poetry finds its way into common speech and in time makes literature which becomes classic.

MERCHANTS UNEASY.

Afraid the Steel Mill Will Be Removed From Wellsville.

URGING THE STRIKERS TO GIVE IN.

Mayor of Wellsville condemns the Merchants For Their Course and Says They Are Going Beyond Their Province—Status of the Steel Strike. Morgan Issues a Statement.

Pittsburg, July 20.—Advices received from the strike center at Wellsville indicate that the people there have had another uneasy and restless day. There is no longer any doubt that the owners of the Wellsville plant of the American Sheet Steel company have many of the town's merchants back of them in their fight against the workmen, and much bitterness has resulted. Concerned with what seems a certainty that if the present trouble goes along much further the Wellsville plant will be lifted and brought across the line into Pennsylvania, grocers, clothing-men and others who for years have received the wages of the mill workers in exchange for goods are now trying to persuade the strikers that they are wrong and foolish in keeping up a fight. Pressure brought to bear along this line, the strikers say, is energy wasted, as they are more determined than before. They are more than angry with the merchants. Those Wellsville men have been considered excellent workmen and many of them have money invested in property there, so that should the mill be taken to Vandergrift, as is threatened, they would suffer. They do not believe the promise, which accompanies the threat, that the mill at Dennison, O., will be brought to Wellsville in case the present trouble is settled.

The proposition has been put to the strikers in a semi-official way that if the strike is settled within a reasonable time, the Dennison mill will be removed to Wellsville to increase the resources of the place, and that if the contest is long drawn out the Wellsville plant will be removed bodily to Vandergrift, Pa. It remains to be seen what effect this line of argument will have on the strikers. Mayor Dennis openly condemns the merchants for their course and says they are going beyond their province in trying to influence the workmen.

Reports from Apollo and Vandergrift, where the Amalgamated association is making strenuous efforts to gain recruits, are that the situation is practically unchanged, but much uneasiness is felt. No official report has reached Pittsburg regarding the situation at Duncansville.

President Shaffer of the Amalgamated Association, however, expresses his entire satisfaction with the progress of the battle and says the workers have gained steadily, while the manufacturers have lost continually since Monday. He says that up to the present time the Amalgamated forces contemplate no change of program, being perfectly satisfied with the showing their people have made. President Shaffer says the advance in wages offered the tube mill workers at McKeesport, while seemingly large, will not bring the pay up to the union scale.

At the offices of the Carnegie Company, and at the headquarters of the manufacturers, the usual silence is preserved concerning the condition of business or the status of the strike.

So far as the best of judges are able to determine the strike situation cannot be termed materially changed, although many rumors are in the air to the effect that a settlement of troubles is imminent. None of these reports has been verified, and the conclusion reached is that no settlement is in sight.

Morgan's Attitude.

New York, July 20.—J. Pierpont Morgan gave positive denial Friday to rumor that the steel strike had been settled. He made this statement: "There is not a word of truth in it. There has been no settlement and there can be no compromise on such a question. The position of the operating companies is perfectly simple and well understood, and so far as I am concerned, has my unqualified approval."

Was a Noted Surgeon.

Washington, July 20.—Dr. William H. Gobrecht, 72, died here. He was the author of well known surgical works. He served on General Hancock's staff in the civil war and rose to a lieutenant colonelcy. He was a demonstrator of anatomy at the universities of Pennsylvania and Ohio and edited "Wilson's Anatomy."

THE W. C. T. U.

In the absence of the President, Mrs. B. F. Patt, Vice President Mrs. Brown called the meeting to order. Devotional exercises were led by Miss Mary Harris who read the 13th chapter of Hebrews. Key-word, "Brotherly Love."

Paper—Miss Mary Harris Whatever a man may have been, let him yield to the demon of strong drink, and it requires no prophet to tell what he will be. He inevitably goes down. All kinds fades out of his nature. The claws of horror, intelligence, and integrity fade from the face that is daubed with debauchery and with accelerated speed he hastens on the downward path. In his sober moments he often susces the instruments of his ruin; but he is powerless to escape the evils that encompass him. He knows not how to break the chains that bind him down. In the busy tide of human toil there is little indeed that he can do, and he has no inclination to do even that. He is an outcast from all that is pure and high and holy. He may sometime turn a solemn thought to the graves where slumber those whom once he loved and whose love for him endured while life remained; but memory stings him with scorpion fangs. Reflection is bitter to his soul. His brain, benumbed with the dreadful poison, no longer thrills with thoughts that rise to heaven, and to Him whose genius illuminated the land and whose eloquence once charmed the listening multitudes. He tells his jokes, moistens his lips with the burning draught and sooths himself until his pain and sorrow are forgotten. Oh! it is a fearful thing to see man on whom God has set his seal with his own signet, the impress of intellect and genius, to give himself to sin, shame and misery, and yet man laugh, dance and sing, as they tread this downward path and only awake to their danger to find themselves fettered in bonds they cannot break. Let those who have not yet fallen into this dangerous road, turn for their lives from a path so full of peril. And those who already find themselves entangled in these terrible snare cry mightily to God for deliverance and hasten to escape ere it becomes impossible.

On next Tuesday the devotional will be led by Mrs. Noyell. Key-word, "Duty." Current events will be led by Mrs. Ella Reid.

MEN

WHO HAD HAND IN DYNAMITING OF ALEXANDRIA BANK

Believed to have been in Granville. Mr. Case got a note telling where horses were.

Mr. L. D. Baker of North Fifth street this city, learned this morning that the horses which had been stolen by the men who dynamited the Alexandria bank and which were found a few days ago as wired the Advocate from Alexandria, were recovered in his 16 acre sugar grove three miles northwest of Appleton. Mr. Baker says that he was on his farm the day after the robbery and was in the grove, but at that time he saw no horses. He says, however, that the trees are very thick in the grove and that he might easily have overlooked them even if they were there at that time.

The following special to the Advocate from Granville throws a little more light on the doings of the men who were probably connected with the Alexandria robbery.

Saturday two men visited Granville and hired rigs of E. J. Case, the livery man. They stopped at the Buxton house where one registered as C. W. Watson, Belleville, Ohio, and the other as C. O. Sloane, Cincinnati. Sloane registered again on Monday, but that time he put down his residence as Columbus.

When the men went to Case's barn again on Monday for rigs they offered Mr. Buxton a $50 bill in payment of the hotel bill, but the bill could not be changed, so it was decided to let it rest until they returned. They have not returned yet.

The day after the robbery Mr. Case received a polite note postmarked Pickerington, Ohio, telling him that his horses would be found there and that the writer would be back in Granville Friday when he would pay Mr. Buxton and Mr. Case.

Being suspicious, Mr. Case telephoned to Belleville and learned that no such man as "C. W. Watson" is known there. He sent to Pickerington after his horses and found that they were being well taken care of in a livery stable. The proprietor said he had been told by the men to take special care of the horses and that he would be paid for it—and he was, but Mr. Case did the paying.

The strangers promised to be back in Granville yesterday to pay for the horse hire and the board bill, but as they have not yet put in an appearance, Granville people are satisfied that the men had a hand in the dynamiting of the Alexandria bank.

GOLDEN ROD

WILL BE TEN YEARS OLD NEXT WEDNESDAY.

Big Basket Picnic at Idlewild—Crowd Coming from Zanesville and Other Nearby Towns.

Wednesday, July 24th, is to be A. O. U. W. day in Newark and from present indications it will be a "big" day in all respects.

That day marks the tenth anniversary of the birth of Golden Rod Lodge No. 100, one of the most prosperous and largest lodges of the Ancient Order of United Workmen in the entire state. Its membership includes many of Newark's most prominent business and professional men and most substantial citizens, who appreciate not only the insurance features of the order but the fraternal feeling that exists among the members as well.

The committee in charge of the observation of the occasion reports that Idlewild park has been secured and that a big basket picnic with all the trimmings will be held.

The Zanesville lodge writes that about 300 people will come up from the "Clay City", a fifty cent rate having been secured from the B. & O. for the occasion. Delegations will come from Mt. Vernon, Cambridge and Columbus also.

The members of the Golden Rod lodge will meet at the hall on the south side of public square at 10 o'clock in the morning of the 24th and will march to the train to meet the incoming delegation from Zanesville.

The program at the park is to begin with the bowling contest followed by lunch, and about one o'clock the guests will march to the train to meet the incoming delegation from Zanesville. The program at the park is to begin with the bowling contest followed by lunch, and about one o'clock the guests

The complete program will be announced later. Remember the date, next Wednesday, July 24, and be sure to be there.

White Man Turned Yellow.

Great consternation was felt by the friends of M. A. Fogarty of Lexington Ky., when they saw he was turning yellow. His skin slowly changed color also his eyes, and he suffered terribly. His malady was Yellow Jowndice. He was treated by the best doctors, but without benefit. Then he was advised to try Electric Bitters, the wonderful Stomach and Liver Remedy, and he writes: "After taking two bottles I was wholly cured." A trial proves its matchless merit for all Stomach, Liver and Kidney troubles. Only 50c. Sold at Hall's drug store.

Excursion to Columbus $1.

On Sunday, July 21 the B. & O. will sell excursion tickets to Columbus, Ohio at rate of $1 for the round trip. Special train will leave Newark at 9:10 a. m. Tickets good for return on special train leaving Columbus at 7 p. m. same date.

ACCIDENTAL ENCROACHMENT

(Columbus Press-Post.)

The discovery was recently made that the Columbus, Buckeye Lake and Newark Traction company had encroached upon state property with its tracks between Hebron and Newark. As a result the company, by C. A. Alderman, has made an application to the state canal commission for a fifteen-year lease of the property, including 3000 feet of right of way and 7000 feet of trolley poles line which had encroached upon state property. The discovery results in a saving to the state of an annual rental of $210.

There are many enthusiastic citizens in Newark prepared to tell their experience for the public good. Testimony from such a source is the best of evidence and will prove a "helping hand" to scores of readers. Read the following statement:

Mr. Albert Wood of 113 Mill St., yard switchman on the B. & O. R. R., says: "I had pain in my back just across the kidneys. It was rather new experience for me, but I did not have it long because I went to Crayton Bros. drug store and got a box of Doan's Kidney Pills. They took all the pain out of my back. I conscientiously advised others to take them."

DEATH'S MESSENGER

Leaped From the Clouds With Summons For Four Men.

TWO WERE KILLED BY ONE FLASH.

Lightning Struck Two Cabins In Which Workmen Sought Shelter.
One of the Most Vivid Electric Displays Ever Seen In Pennsylvania.
Terrific Storms in England.

Grove City, Pa., July 20.—A fierce electrical storm here resulted in four deaths and the severe injury of three persons. Luther Campbell, Howard Cornelius, Anton Darenka and Michael Zaccaglia were killed. Lin Covert, Edward Hosack and Oscar Covert were perhaps fatally injured.

A section crew on the Bessemer and Lake Erie railroad was returning home from work when the storm came up. The men left the railroad track and hastened to a deserted house at the Pinchalong mine for shelter. Hardly had they reached the place when lightning struck the house.

Luther Campbell, foreman of the crew, and Howard Cornelius, one of the section men, were struck by one bolt and instantly killed. Campbell did not even have a mark showing where the lightning struck him, but Cornelius was horribly burned. Lin
Covert, Edward Hosack and Oscar Covert were also shocked and rendered unconscious for several hours
from the same flash, and all are in a critical condition and may die.

During the storm a house occupied by Italians who are working on the new railroad a few miles south of this place was struck. There were several men crowded into the little cabin, afraid to work or even speak while the storm was raging. This house was struck and almost totally destroyed.
Darenka and Zaccaglia were instantly killed and several of their companions were severely shocked,
one or two of whom may die.

Much other damage was done in this region by the storm, which is said to have been one of the most terrible electrical displays ever witnessed in this section of Pennsylvania.

Drought In England Broken.

London, July 20.—Terrific thunderstorms over the northern parts of England presage a break-up of the heat wave. At Newcastle-on-Tyne the streets were flooded and traffic of all kinds was temporarily suspended. The railroad system was partially disarranged. In Shields several houses were struck by lightning and the streets were impassable for hours. In Sunderland fires were kindled by lightning in two places. Paxton House, the residence of Samuel Stoy-rey, in Berwickshire, was in the path of a violent hailstorm. Stones an inch in diameter broke windowpanes and wrecked the greenhouses. Crops and orchards were badly damaged.

Heavy Rains In Texas.

Houston, Tex., July 20.—Heavy rains are reported from many parts of Texas. While the rain is not general, nearly all sections of the state have been reached and a large portion of the cotton has been soaked. The reports from Denton, Fort Worth and Vernon, in northern Texas, say the downpour covered a wide area in the vicinity of those towns. There is still a considerable part of central Texas suffering to some extent, but late reports indicate relief soon.

Fishing With Shovels.

Lincoln, Neb., July 20.—The temperature was 101 again Friday. There was no rain in the state. The Platte river is very low, in places entirely dry, and fish have taken refuge in shallow pools, where they are scooped out with ordinary shovels.

Mrs. Hanna Quite Composed.

Queenstown, July 20.—Mrs. Daniel Hanna, who is passenger on the Cunard liner Campania, from New York, for Liverpool, when interviewed on the steamer in the Queenstown harbor, said her trip to Europe was entirely for pleasure and that its duration would depend on circumstances.
She asserted that she was not aware of having left New York city under sensational circumstances. Her two boys were with her and she ridiculed
the idea that she could be separated from them. She said she was quite indifferent as to any proceedings that might be taken to that end.

Stewart Brice In London.

London, July 20.—City Councilman
Stewart M. Brice of New York has arrived in London on his way to see Richard Croker. Mr. Brice said:
"While I do not pretend to be on a special mission to Mr. Croker, I hope to see him next week. Tammany prospects, I believe, are exceedingly bright. As to Mr. Croker's return, we believe the organization is in such shape that it does not depend upon the presence of any one man to make success sure."

Afraid of the Chinese.

Tien Tsin, July 20.—Considerable uneasiness is felt here following the resumption by the Chinese of the partial control of the city. The natives are cutting telegraph lines outside of Tien Tsin and fears of further violence are entertained.

Indiana Coal Pioneer.

Washington, Ind., July 20.—Joseph
Cabel, the senior member of the Cabel & Kauffman Mercantile company and of the Cabel Coal company, died suddenly. He was a pioneer in the development of the bituminous coal fields of southern Indiana.

British Shoe Factory Burned.

Rushden, England, July 20.—Cave & Sons' shoe factory here, which was one of the largest in the midland counties, was destroyed by fire. The damage amounts to $100,000.

ADMIRAL SCHLEY

Petty Clerk Wrote The History Which Scores Him and Sampson Oppened The Unjust Censure--Editor Appeals To The President.

right yourself immediately."

MacLay's Version.

Baltimore, July 20.—Owing to the statements made in the MacLay history of the war with Spain affecting Rear Admiral Schley, General Felix
Angus of the Baltimore American addressed to President McKinley the following appeal:

"MacLay's history of the navy is the standard in use at the naval academy.
In the third volume, just issued, the historian charges Rear Admiral Schley with being a coward, a liar, a cattif, an incompetent and insubordinate. In an interview in the American MacLay, the historian, who is a navy department clerk, classed as a laborer and attached to the Brooklyn navy yard, says that proofs of this third volume, which should have told the most glorious story in all our naval annals, were submitted to Secretary Long and Admiral Sampson and approved by them in advance of the publication; also that Long put him in his present position after he had read and approved this scurrilous attack upon Admiral Schley. These proofs were also submitted to Admiral Dewey, who refused to read them. It ought to be needed to convince any fair-minded man that a clique in the navy department has conspired to traduce the hero of Santiago and that the conspiracy was carried into execution
while that brave and gallant officer was suffering expatriation on the fever-infested coasts of South America, this should furnish it. Will you, Mr. President, in view of all this, sit quietly by and permit these conspirators to continue their diabolical work?
Every justice-loving American appeals to you to intervene in the name and for the sake of fair play. Next to being right all the time, what human ever was, it is best to find out as soon as possible that you are wrong, and Long Inhibits the Screech.

Washington, July 20.—It has been decided by Secretary Long the third volume of MacLay's history of the American-Spanish war shall not be used as a text book at the naval academy unless the obnoxious language it contains characterizing the action of Rear Admiral Schley is eliminated.
The secretary says he never saw the account of the battle of Santiago and the criticisms of Rear Admiral Schley
until after the book was published.
Mr. MacLay was appointed to his present position in the navy yard Aug. 23, 1900, having been transferred from the lighthouse service.

MR. DAWES DEMANDS RETURN OF ASSETS.

Comptroller of the Currency Issues
an Order in the Seventh National Affair.

New York, July 20.—After a conference between Comptroller Dawes,
counsel for Seven National bank,
and the receiver, the following statement was made by Receiver Raynor:
"The comptroller of the currency cannot deem as valid the transactions
made by the Seventh National bank within two days of its failure, where by a large portion of its assets were at first transferred to the Bowling Green Trust company, as trustee, to secure loans of about $1,200,000, made to the bank by or through its directors, to enable the bank to pay a portion of its existing liabilities. Unless the directors within two weeks further time provide money to pay the claims of all depositors in full, the receiver has been directed to institute suit to protect the legal rights of the depositors."

Railroad Mortgage Foreclosed.

Jackson, Miss., July 20.—New Orleans attorneys filed an application in the federal court here for a receiver
for the New Orleans and Northwestern railway, asking also foreclosure of a $2,000,000 mortgage executed in 1890 to the Central Trust company of New York, on which $350,000 is due.
Default was made on the bonds in 1898 and the foreclosure is asked for the protection of the bondholders. The Goulds are recent purchasers of the road and it is thought they are behind these proceedings as the first step in the formal transfer of the property.

RURAL MAIL ORDERS.

Star Route Carriers Shall Not Deliver on Rural Routes.

CARRIERS CAN NOT ACT AS AGENTS.

Privileges Restricted to Parcel Service
For Patrons Along Their Routes
but Can Not Do Business For Express Companies, Wholesale Houses,
or Corporations.

Washington, July 20.—Postmaster
General Smith has issued two orders of importance to the rural mail service throughout the country. One is designed to avoid the duplication of service in some sections by both star and rural free delivery service and the other limits the private enterprises in which carriers may engage while performing their official duties.

The first order is as follows. But delivered by star route carriers will not hereafter be permitted over such portions of star routes as may have in operation the rural free delivery service; provided, however, that an additional and supplemental box delivery may be performed by star route carriers when shown to be necessary and practicable and not involving the department in any additional expenditure. In those states in which the star route box delivery is now in operation
the rural free delivery service will not hereafter be established over any road which must continue to be traversed
as a part of a star route, except in special and unavoidable cases, in which cases the star route
box delivery will be abandoned."

The other order reads: "Hereafter rural letter carriers shall not act as agents, salesmen or solicitors for express companies, letter-box manufacturers, wholesale houses, corporations or firms, nor engage in any business or avocation which would interfere with the proper performance of their official duties. But they may act as news agents, sell newspapers or periodicals on their own account or accept and collect subscriptions for the same. This order is not intended to prohibit carriers from performing various private commissions for the accommodation of the patrons on their routes, so long as it does not interfere with the regular and prompt performance of their duties."

Cut Off His Friend's Ear.

London, July 20.—Count Gabriel Ke-pezay, a first lieutenant in one of the Honored huzza regiments, says a dispatch from Budapest, has been formally degraded in Szegedin before the whole regiment. He made a drinking bet that he would cut off the right ear
of one of his best friends, Casper Kanyo, with his saber. He then approached the unsuspecting Kanyo and slashed off the ear. Kanyo shot at him with his revolver, but missed him.
Then, turning to the mirror and seeing himself without the ear, he turned the revolver against himself and fell dead.
The colonel, in degrading Ke-pezay, warned the officers of the regiment against debauchery and drunk-ness."

An Act of Providence.

Peru, Ind., July 20.—Coroner Yar-ling of this city has filed his verdict on the Wabash wreck at Cass a few weeks ago. He decides that the victims of the disaster came to their death by reason of a cloudburst having washed out the track, causing the wreck, and that the company had used ordinary care in regard to the culvert and track and is not to be held responsible for the accident.

Bridge Works Destroyed.

Indianapolis, July 20.—Fire destroyed the plant of the Indianapolis Bridge company and two large buildings of Van Camp Packing company. The total loss is $75,000. Of this the Van Camp company lost $35,000, with $12,
000 insurance, and the bridge company $40,000, partially covered by insurance. The two plants occupied an entire square.

Robbed Before He Died.

Wichita, Kan., July 20.—After being robbed on a train returning from El Reno, F. R. Smith, an aged man from Bonham, Tex., dropped dead in a crowded coach. The body was taken to Oklahoma

Formerly Assistant Rector at St. Francis de Sales Church—Burial Here on Sunday.

Rev. J. J. Banks a former assistant to V. Rev. B. M. O'Boyle, rector of St. Francis de Sales church here, died very suddenly Friday evening about 8:30 o'clock at the Hotel Warden. Father Banks had come to the city at noon.

Mr. Banks was born in England 53 years ago and was educated at Rome, having been ordained to the priesthood about eight years ago. He was located in and about New York City and about a year ago came to Newark to act as Father O'Boyle's assistant in the Newark church. He left the city last October and was in the Cleveland diocese. DEATH

RELIEVED MRS. BROWN OF HER SUFFERING.

The End Came Friday Evening—Her Son from Newark was Present. Was a Widow.

Mrs. Sarah Brown, mother of C. R. Brown, of 130 Jefferson street, this city, whose frightful injury was telegraphed to the Advocate from Columbus on Friday, died late in the evening. Her son who is president of the Newark Carpenters' Union, was present. The Ohio State Journal published the following notice of the sad death:

Mrs. Sarah Brown, of Dresden, O., who has been visiting her son, William J. Brown, at 220 Lexington avenue, died Friday evening from burns received through the accidental igniting of her clothing from a small gas stove Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. Brown had been to Minerva park in company with Mrs. W. J. Brown and Mrs. T. J. Thompson, and on her return went into the bath room to bathe her face. While thus engaged, her dressing sacque caught fire from the gas stove which stood near by and in an instant her clothing was all ablaze. The flames were quickly extinguished, but not before she had received fatal injuries, her breast, neck and shoulders being burned to a
